The American Academy of Dermatology invites you to become a Sustaining Member

Stephen P. Stone, MD, FAAD
Chair, Development Committee and 2010 President's Circle member

As a dermatologist and member of the Academy since 1974, I have much to be thankful for. The Academy has helped me to become a skilled dermatologist, a compassionate physician, a recognized educator and mentor, and a strong leader.

I am also proud to have been a Sustaining Member for more than ten years! As a Sustaining Member, I have helped to ensure that today's and tomorrow's dermatologists have the knowledge, tools and resources they need to continue our tradition of excellence in patient care and humanitarian service; and to assure that our Academy continues to be the global leader in dermatology.

Make Your Sustaining Member Gift:

- Complete the attached form; or
- Send your contribution along with your Dues renewal; or
- Visit www.AADdevelopment.org to download a donation form

Your Sustaining Member gifts have helped to:

- Build shaded areas in communities across the country to prevent skin cancer
- Develop innovative tools to help members stay abreast of new knowledge and treatments
- Educate children about the importance of good skin, hair and nail care
- Send a child to experience a life-changing week at AAD Camp Discovery

Our annual membership dues provide only 25% of the Academy's annual operating budget. Sustaining Member contributions and other revenues are essential for our continuing success!

The Academy's Sustaining Member Program has given me this unique opportunity to help strengthen my profession. I am proud to have taken my philanthropic leadership to the next level and encourage all my colleagues to do so as well.

To those who have already made a 2010 Sustaining Member contribution, thank you for your generosity. To those considering a gift, thank you for making a difference through giving.
